

Contents

Note from the Editor	v
Complexities of National Security Decision-Making Process VP Malik	1
Is Asia Becoming a Militarised Region? Shyam Saran	13
Indian Foreign Policy vis-à-vis Pakistan: Dialogue and Prospects Satish Chandra	26
The Bane of Pseudo Specialisation P C Katoch	38
Managing National Security: Threats, Challenges and Conflict Resolution Gurmeet Kanwal	48
Maoist Insurgency: Dealing with a Major Threat Ashok Joshi	59
Future Conflict, Information Overload and the Rise of Generation C Dhruv C Katoch	68
Disarmament in Distress: Time for Ground Action Swadesh M Rana	76
Obama's China Policy: Arranging for Engagement Monika Chansoria	92
Creating a Successful Intelligence and Counter-Terrorism Matrix: Lessons from 26/11 Saikat Datta	101
'Afghanisation' of the Security Sector: An Assessment Shanthie Mariet D'Souza and Bibhu Prasad Routray	116
Indian Army's Contribution to Internal Security Sushil Pradhan	128

Threat from China's River Diversion Project Yogesh Nair	141
Enhancing Intelligence Assessment and Coordination at National Level Manoj Shrivastava	154
Militancy in Manipur: A Conflicting Dilemma Shivananda H	166
Commentaries
Securing the Cyberspace Kamal Davar	178
Behind the Network Paradise: Speculations on Armed Conflict in a Time of Interactive Emergencies Manabrata Guha	183
Book Reviews
The China Syndrome: Grappling with an Uneasy Relationship Monika Chansoria	191
Awakening Giants, Feet of Clay: Assessing the Economic Rise of China and India Gunjan Singh	194
Nuclear Weapons and Conflict Transformation: The Case of India-Pakistan Aditi Malhotra	197